To Whom It May Concern:

In December 2003 the New South Police contracted H. Johnson and Co, Stonemasons of Botany to restore a classical monument honouring New South Wales Police Officers who enlisted for military service during World War I.

Several months prior to this, H. Johnson and Co's principal, Anthony Renowden provided a comprehensive quote on a difficult and challenging project. He not only showed a willingness to provide this quote but also in fact honoured this over a passage of time whilst funds were raised.

This incredible display of craftsmanship was completed in a timely manner and well and truly to the satisfaction of the New South Wales Police. I would not hesitate to recommend these services to anyone who may well require work of a similar nature.

Sincerely,
